Matt -- awaiting Dr McNutt getting back to review, but wanted to resend one change to the report. The spelling of one of the FRTG members names was incorrect, and his academic department just a bit off. If you would, please insert the below in the right place in the version you're working with.

Paul Bommer, Senior Lecturer, Petroleum and Geosystems Engineering, University of Texas at Austin

Thanks
Vic

Dr. McNutt,

Per our conversation, I've highlighted the slightly different sentence structure in the first paragraph of the report. I have also attached a couple proposed edits to your edits to the modified press release.

Let me know if you are ok with these and I will work them through the process.

Thanks,
Matt
