Mark,

I was just informed that it will be complete in the next hour. Once I get the call, I will send you a note and run down and get it to give you.

Hi Michael,

I am trying to determine the odds that I can get the new video headed toward NOAA's Seattle office today, via FedEx. Do you have an estimate of when the video might be ready for me to head out the door with today? Any insights are appreciated.

Mark
