Thanks, Mark. As long as you don't mind. Actually, the 6:30 am one is the more important one, as that one has the 24-hour averages :)

Hi Marcia,

Just an FYI. On Friday afternoon, Kevin from USCG and [NAME?] from MMS stopped by en route to the 4:30 briefing. When informed that you were out of town, they suggested I attend in your place, so the full "federal trio" will be present. This seemed consistent with your original idea to have me attend if you were gone long-term, so I went on both Friday and Saturday. I put the handouts from the briefings on your table.

Covering the 6:30 brief in your absence is not problem... I am an early riser anyway. Do you want me to cover it tomorrow (Monday)?
