Hi all. Here is my travel reservation home from DCA tonight. I'm not sure who wants or needs to approve this but could someone please do so?

Thanks!

Welcome to the latest version of RezConfirm. Below is a simplified version of your RezConfirm document for PDA users. All users should review the attached PDF document for complete travel details and immediately contact your ADTRAV agent if there are any discrepancies!

Important Secure Flight Information:

Your airline ticket must be issued in your full name as it appears on the ID you plan to present at the airport. In addition, your airline reservation must contain your full date of birth and your gender.

If you haven't already done so please visit www.rezprofiler.com to update this information in the ADTRAV computer systems or provide it to the agent each time you make a booking. By providing this information in advance, you will expedite your check-in process at the airport.
