I'll be there when he arrives. I am sure he will come find me.

Should we have someone present and in the office when he arrives... or will he even be on the 3rd floor?

Sure, Mark. I don't expect anything pressing. The Admiral arrives at noon.

Subject: Return to Houston Tuesday?

Hi Marcia,

With my Houston departure delayed until tonight, and the expected delays in the CDP-1 start up, I would like to delay my return to Houston until Tuesday, rather than Monday. Do you see any problems with doing so? I am happy to stick to the Monday plan if there is added value to it.
