FINDING THE
RIGHT PROCESS
FOR YOU

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF
THE INTERIOR

HELPING YOU FIND A RESOLUTION TO YOUR CONFLICT

MEDIATION :

A process in which an impartial practitioner (mediator) who has no decision-making authority assists the parties in a dispute to reach a mutually acceptable resolution of the issues in dispute.

FACILITATION :

A process where an impartial practitioner (facilitator) assists to improve the flow of information between parties or helps a group move through a problem-solving process to reach group decisions, achieve stated goals, or to resolve or improve a situation. A facilitator generally becomes less involved in the substantive issues than a mediator

CONFLICT COACHING :

A one-on-one voluntary and confidential process that combines ADR and coaching principles. An individualized method for helping one person develop skills and strategies to constructively manage interpersonal conflicts.

TRAINING :

Training on topics such as: Conflict Management Skills, Communication Skills, Emotional Intelligence , Cultural Competency and Interest Based Negotiation provide individuals with tools to proactively and effectively manage and resolve conflicts at the earliest opportunity and the lowest possible level.

CLIMATE ASSEMENT :

The engagement of an impartial practitioner to conduct confidential interviews, written surveys or focus groups to assist management and group members gain a clearer understanding of a situation, identify areas where things are working well, areas where improvements are possible, and determine any steps or processes that could help resolve or improve the situation.

CORE PLUS PROCESSES :

- Offer a wide range of possibilities
- Are tailored to serve your needs
- Utilize impartial neutral third parties
- Are confidential
- Allow you the opportunity to play a part in resolving the issue

CONSULTATION :

This is an informal one-on-one meeting or discussion with an impartial neutral third party to allow a venue for deliberation, discussion, or decision by an employee or manager considering their options.

COOPERATIVE PROBLEM SOLVING :

This is an informal technique that does not require the assistance of an impartial neutral practitioner, in which the parties recognize that a problem or dispute exists and agree to work together to resolve the conflict or dispute through collaboration rather than competition in order to avoid the negative impacts that could otherwise occur. If cooperative problem solving proves too difficult or does not resolve all of the issues, the parties may seek impartial third party assistance.

CONCILIATION :

This process involves an impartial third party who assists the parties to address tensions or hurt feelings, resolve issues of concern and improve communications, clarify misunderstandings and build a more positive working relationship.
